Full Stack Developer (MERN)

I'm a full stack web developer who love to create responsive websites using HTML, CSS, Bootstrap, JavaScript, React JS, Node Js and Mongo DB. I've done few own projects and looking for an opportunity to work and excel my skills in an organization and interested to explore and work on complex projects.

PROJECTS

Tirukural API

Responsive website which integrates with the REST API to pull specified Tirukural data. You can view the particular tirukural in tamil and english with meaning by entering the kural number in search box.

Covid-19 API

This site delivers the covid-19 case details of all over india. Simply input your state code and get your detailed covid-19 information.

Online Shopping APP

This is a simple ecommerce website. We can search, add and remove an item from the cart.
